

Registration

General Information

If you are arriving on Riverside School board territory in mid-year, please contact us. We will provide the necessary information about our elementary or secondary schools.

Registration for the 2019-2020 school year:

The registration period for the 2019-2020 school year (Kindergarten students as well as others new to the Board) will take place beginning Monday, January 28, 2019.

No new students are to be registered prior to that date.

New registrations for the school year 2019-2020 take place at the school of your choice in accordance with the Enrolment Policy for Registration with the Riverside School Board. An appointment must be made with the school secretary before registration. Please consult our registration page for further information on www.rsb.qc.ca (under "Parents" Tab).

For Pre-Kindergarten (St. Mary's School – (450)-674-0851/ St-Jude School – (450) 672-2090), the child must be 4 years of age before September 30th.*

For Kindergarten, the child must be 5 years of age before September 30th.

For grade 1, the child must be 6 years of age before September 30th. In order to qualify for English Instruction in Quebec Public Schools, students must meet certain eligibility criteria under the Charter of the French Language as set out by the Quebec government. See Eligibility for English instruction WEB page.

*The Pre-K English is a regional program (available across the entire school board) but restricted to postal codes with a socio-economic rating of 8, 9, or 10. Students residing at other postal codes are not eligible to attend this program.
