NOTICE OF ELECTIONS

Dear Parents and Guardians,

Riverside School Board will hold elections for its Advisory Committee on Services for Students with Special Needs for the 2015-2016 school year. This Advisory Committee is composed of 8 parents and 6 other members selected from the Board's teachers, support staff, non-teaching professionals and administrators.

On October 7, 2015 the Advisory Committee will appoint a parent representative to the Parents' Committee. Our elected parent-commissioner, who sits on the Council of Commissioners, will begin year two of a two-year mandate. The Committee provides an opportunity for this representative group to come together on a regular basis to discuss the special education services provided to its students.

Persons elected to this committee must be a parent/guardian to a child identified for special need services. Services which include remedial assistance in schools, technician support for academic or behavioural difficulties, support of an attendant for integration purposes or placement in a special education class or program. This student would have an Individualized Educational Plan in place for the 2015-2016 school year.
