“TD Canadian Children`s Reading Week Author Gail de Vos visited Mount-Bruno and Mountainview Elementary Schools”

425 students from the two schools participated in five one hour storytelling sessions given by Mrs. de Vos.

Her oral tales were accompanied by several string stories in an interactive format with the students. Participation was very high as students asked questions, participated physically and/or verbally in the stories and witnessed how hands and string can be used to enhance the telling of a story.

Gail de Vos teaches at the School of Library and Information Studies (University of Alberta) where she is an adjunct professor.

Each year she teaches courses such as:

- Storytelling
- Comic Books and Graphic Novels
- Canadian Children`s Literature
- Young Adult Literature

The RVCLC is proud to have collaborated with Mount-Bruno and Mountainview Elementary Schools and TD Canada Reading Week to fly this author down from Alberta to Quebec.
