THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW

- The 2012-2013 parameters have still not been received (the 2011-2012 consultation parameters were received April 1, 2011).
- Career plan interviews with all administrative staff are well underway.

HATS OFF TO:

- Heather Hancheruk and Carol Blackburn, Riverside Art teachers, who thought the innovative ArtsSmarts approach could work 12 years ago and brought the original project to Riverside. ArtsSmarts announced the Inaugural 21YCC Projects March 28, 2012 and Chambly Academy is one of the 14 successful schools from across Canada to receive this grant! This is very fitting as Heather Hancheruk is the Art teacher at Chambly Academy who initiated this project. Be sure to visit the school in the fall to see their work!
- Centennial students for submitting 9 projects to the Montreal Regional Science and Technology Fair and bringing home 2 Honourable Mentions, 4 bronze medals, 1 silver medal and 2 gold medals. Congratulations to the students and their teachers!
- Lisa Rae who did a great job in finalizing our Partnership Agreement Report.
- Gail Somerville, Valérie Bergeron and their team in Complementary Services for achieving validation results of 91%! They managed to get the approvals up from 56% to 91% in 5 years!
- St. Mary's School and their Club des petits déjeuners. This is also a reminder that both St. Mary's and St. Jude's are looking for volunteers to help out.
- And a bow to the cast of the Wizard of Oz and its director, Steve Bélanger, for an amazing presentation!

Parents' Committee: P. Chouinard/D. Copeman

PUBLIC QUESTIONS

Mr. Brad Morley thanked Council members for accepting his decision to return to the classroom. He stated that the last two years in the position of vice-principal had been very enjoyable. He expressed his thanks to everyone he has worked with. He indicated that his decision was entirely personal and in no way related to any specific individual. The Chairman thanked Mr. Morley for his service as an administrator and wished him success back in the classroom.

ROUND OF APPLAUSE

- Commissioner Chouinard attended the Public Speaking contest. He will be accompanying the St. Johns Choir to Boston and also indicated that St. Johns' students were happy Mr. Morley was going to stay on at the school.

- Commissioner Smith offered congratulations for the Adam's Pace and the Step-Up Programs. She also mentioned that she was present at St. Mary's while Minute-Maid filmed a docu-commercial. Commissioner attended the Fashion Show at Chambly Academy and noted that part of the money raised is also retained by the school. She is working with REACH students on an ArtsSmarts project growing things in a pépinière and planting seedlings. Commissioner Smith sits on the PACE Steering Committee and offered thanks to all the high schools that had donated money to PACE.
- Commissioner Nichols mentioned that the Step-Up students had been involved in presenting something at the Spring-Fling at the Reading Council. She also mentioned that books are being donated to RSB by an individual residing in Boucherville.
- Commissioner Gour congratulated Harold Napper's teacher-director, Mr. Steve Bélanger, for an amazingly well-done production of The Wizard of Oz. She also attended a spaghetti dinner and concert at Good Shepherd School.
