Meagan Hawes gave an account of her educational path at Riverside School Board from Kindergarten, to St. Lambert Elementary School, to Centennial Regional High School and to Adam's Pace at Champlain Cegep. She is presently attending the Step Up program at ACCESS St. Lambert. Meagan spoke glowingly of Adam Taylor, the people who made a difference along the way and shared her plans for the future. In Meagan's words: "...get a job; spend time with friends; get an apartment with a roommate; have a boyfriend (although they can be a lot of trouble); continue to write and read books; learn how to cook for myself; continue to do community service and hopefully be Quebec's Down Syndrome representative." Congratulations on your accomplishments, Meagan, and may all your plans and dreams come true.²

WHEREAS in accordance with section 83 of the Financial Administration Act stipulates that the Borrower may, under such long-term borrowing plan, grant the exercise of its borrowing power or the power to approve its terms and conditions to at least two of its executives;

 - b) the Borrower may not make a borrowing transaction unless it receives a subsidy from the Québec government in accordance with the standards established by the Conseil du trésor for the granting or the promise of subsidies to school boards as well as with the terms and conditions determined by the Minister and providing for the payment of the principal and interest of the borrowing concerned even if, otherwise, payment of such subsidy is subject to the funds required for such purpose be voted annually by Parliament;

3. THAT for the purposes of determining the total amount to which paragraph 1 above refers and the amount to which paragraph 2 a) above refers, only the face amount of the borrowings made by the Borrower is taken into account;

4. THAT, in the case where borrowings are made by Bond Issue, the Borrower grants to the Minister of Finance and the Economy the irrevocable mandate, throughout the life of borrowing plan:
 - a) to place, on behalf of the Borrower, the borrowings authorized under this plan, subject to the limits stated therein and the characteristics stipulated therein;
 - b) to agree, on behalf of the Borrower, the financial terms of the bond issues with the firm underwriters of these issues that it chooses;
 - c) to retain, on behalf of the Borrower, the services of any legal advisor, trust company and, if necessary, printer and to agree to the terms for retaining the services of the legal advisor, trust company and, where applicable, printer.

 - f) the authorized signatories hereunder of the Borrower are authorized to deliver the global certificate and the bond certificates that may, as the case may be, issued in exchange for the global certificate to the above-mentioned trust company to allow the latter to certify them, sign all the necessary documents to that end and their final delivery to CDS Clearing and Depository Services Inc.

(“CDS”) or, as the case may be, according to the instructions of CDS;

- g) the bonds shall be issued under a principal trust agreement or, as the case may be, a supplementary trust agreement concluded by the Borrower, the trust company and, as intervener, the Minister and the bonds shall be governed by these trust agreements;

- n) should CDS cease to act as depository of the global certificate, should CDS cease to be a self-regulatory organization recognized by the Autorité des marchés financiers du Québec without being replaced by such an organization within thirty (30) days or should the Borrower wish to replace the global certificate with individual bond certificates, the bonds would then be represented by individual bond certificates fully registered in denominations of $1 000 or whole multiples of such amount;
- o) the payment of the capital and interest on the bonds booked with CDS and represented by a global certificate shall be made by a credit made by CDS in the respective account of its participants who hold bonds and by a credit made by the latter to the respective account of the non-registered bondholders they represent;

- p) should individual bond certificates be issued in replacement of the global certificate, payment of the interest on the individual bond certificates would then be made by cheque or draft payable at par and drawn on a bank governed by the Act respecting banks and banking (S.C. 1991, c. 46) or on a financial services cooperative governed by the Act respecting financial services cooperatives (R.S.Q., c. C-67.3), or by transfer of funds to an account maintained by registered holder of the individual bond certificate concerned with a financial institution that shall have been identified to the trust company;

- r) in the case of bonds represented by individual bond certificates, the paying agent shall be the trust company as far as payment of interest is concerned and, concerning payment of the principal, any branch in Canada of the Borrower's bankers or, at the latter's option, any financial services cooperative governed by the Act respecting financial services cooperatives and the Caisse centrale Desjardins du Québec, in Montréal;
- s) any overdue payment of interest on the bonds shall bear interest at the same rate as the bonds concerned;
- t) the bonds shall not be redeemable in advance at the sole discretion of the Borrower but may be purchased by the Borrower on the market by bid, by private contract or by any other method the Borrower may deem appropriate. The Borrower may reissue the bonds thus redeemed at any time prior to their maturity;
- u) provided the individual bond certificates are issued, they shall be exchangeable, at no charge for their registered holders, for an equal overall face value of bond certificates of all authorized denominations and of the same characteristics provided the claimed number of individual bond certificates is, in the opinion of the trust company, reasonable in the circumstances;
- v) the global certificate and the individual bond certificates that may, as the case may be, be issued in exchange for the global certificate, shall be signed, on behalf of the Borrower, by any of the authorized signatories hereunder, provided two of them act jointly. These signatures may be replaced by a facsimile that is printed or otherwise reproduced that shall have the same effect as a handwritten signature; the global certificate and the individual bond certificates, if any, shall also include a certificate of the trust company, bearing the signature of one of its authorized representatives;
