3.5 The Lessee

Facilities and Equipment Used

- a) The lessee is prohibited from using facilities and equipment other than those specified in the Rental Agreement on.
- b) The lessee must comply with the maximum occupancy capacity of the rented facilities.
- c) Before posting, attaching, or affixing materials or other equipment to walls, floors, or ceilings on a temporary basis, the lessee must obtain authorization from the institution's administration. Any additional installation or modification to the building is prohibited.
- d) Gymnasiums in which floors have special floor coverings intended for physical education, must be used solely for appropriate athletic activities and users must wear appropriate shoes.
- e) The handling and/or use of the lessor's specialized materials or equipment may only be carried out by the lessor's designated personnel, at the lessee's expense.
- f) The lessee is fully responsible for any damage to the furniture, equipment and building. The lessor reserves the right to claim expenses for damage caused to the property as a result of a rental.

Rental Period

- a) The rental period begins at the time indicated in the Rental Agreement and ends at the time specified in the Rental Agreement.
- b) If the actual use exceeds the number of hours stipulated in the agreement, the renter shall pay an additional fee rounded up to the next full hour beyond the original end time.

Other Obligations of the Lessee

- a) Lessees shall abide by all federal, provincial, municipal and any other acts and regulations/by-laws pertaining to their activities and obtain from the appropriate authorities all necessary permits in connection with the rental. They shall reimburse the lessor for any damage or disbursement arising from their failure to do so.
 - I. Under the Copyright Act of Canada, a lessee who uses or communicates to the public a copyrighted musical work that is part of SOCAN's repertoire is legally required to obtain a license appropriate to the activity.

- h) the lessee agrees to indemnify the lessor in the event of any legal action or claim relating to bodily injuries or damage to property belonging to the lessor or to a third party that may result from the fault, negligence, or omission of the lessee, or of any of the lessee's guests, clients, or employees, and agrees to assume the defense in the event of any action or dispute against the lessor.
- i) The lessee shall provide proof of liability insurance of a minimum of $2,000,000.

4.0 Rental Cost

4.1 The rental cost includes operating costs, service and administrative fees and any adjustments where applicable. The minimum rental cost that includes operating cost and service fees cannot be waived and must be charged for all rentals.

4.2 The surplus, if any, will be managed as per the Policy on Allocation of Resources.

5.0 Cancellation

5.1 The lessor reserves the right to cancel the rental for any reason it deems sufficient merely by serving notice to this effect in writing to the lessee at least ten (10) working days prior to the date the cancellation is to take effect. Such notice is not required if the lessor determines that such action is attributable to a force majeure. The lessee may claim only the amount it paid as rental expenses for the period it was unable to use the facilities.

5.2 Conversely, a lessee cancelling a rental must advise the lessor in writing at least ten (10) working days before the activity is to be held. Failure to do so, shall require the lessee to pay the rate associated with the rental as if the activity had taken place.

5.3 Furthermore, if the person responsible for the activity is not present at the leased facilities thirty (30) minutes after the time specified on the rental agreement, the lessor may cancel the rental, in which case the lessee shall pay the rental-related rate as if the activity had taken place.

6.0 Authority to Evict

6.1. When the lessor deems that an activity taking place in its facilities is not compliant with applicable legislation, regulations, municipal by-laws as well as RSB Directives Guidelines Procedures and Statements, the lessor may terminate the activity. Such a decision on the part of the lessor is final and cannot be appealed. The lessee, in such a case, may not and will not be compensated for this cancellation.
