Original text in French

The development of an anti-bullying and anti-violence plan is one process among a set of actions implemented by the educational institution to ensure a healthy and safe environment. The prevention of violence and bullying requires ongoing actions that depend, in particular, on the continuous and consistent application of the rules of conduct and safety measures approved by the governing board. In accordance with the Education Act (EA), the rules of conduct must specify, in particular:

- the attitudes and conduct that are required of students at all times
- the behaviours and verbal or other exchanges that are prohibited at all times, including during school transportation, regardless of the means used, including social media
- the applicable disciplinary measures, according to the severity or repetitive nature of the prohibited act

Furthermore, the rules of conduct and the safety measures must be presented to the students during a civics session held each year by the principal in collaboration with the school staff. They must also be sent to the parents at the beginning of each school year (EA, s. 76). Often outlined in the educational institution's code of conduct, these rules of conduct are intended to ensure the best possible conditions for success and the proper operation of the school. They establish the expected everyday behaviours for fostering community life (e.g. respect, civility). The objective of the anti-bullying and anti-violence plan is to develop ways of preventing the occurrence of any situation of bullying or violence, and to plan out the actions to be taken when such a situation unfortunately arises.

In this template for the anti-bullying and anti-violence plan, the term "instigator" replaces the more widely used term "author", particularly in legal frameworks. The term "instigator" is thus used in this document except when those legal frameworks are cited.

INTRODUCTION

In order to clarify the duties and responsibilities of educational institutions and all school stakeholders involved in situations of violence and bullying, the Education Act (hereinafter, "EA" [CQLR, c. I-13.3]) requires every educational institution¹ to develop a plan aimed at preventing and putting an end to all forms of bullying and violence and, more specifically, at making the institution a healthy and safe learning environment, so that every student attending it can develop their full potential, free from any form of bullying or violence. In addition, the adoption of the Act respecting the National Student Ombudsman (S.Q., 2022, c. 17, hereinafter, "ANSO") has led to further amendments to the EA.

In particular, the EA therefore stipulates the following:

- The principal shall see to the implementation of the anti-bullying and anti-violence plan and shall promptly deal with any report or complaint concerning an act of bullying or violence that they receive or that the regional student ombudsman sends to the principal (EA, s. 96.12). The principal shall assist the governing board in the exercise of its functions and powers and, for that purpose, shall coordinate the development, the review and, if necessary, the updating of the anti-bullying and anti-violence plan (EA, s. 96.13). The principal shall see to it that all school staff members are informed of the school's rules of conduct, safety measures and anti-bullying and anti-violence measures, and of the procedure to be followed when an act of bullying or violence is observed (EA, s. 96.21).
- Every school staff member shall collaborate in implementing the anti-bullying and anti-violence plan and shall see to it that no student in the school is the victim of bullying or violence (EA, s. 75.3).
- The governing board is responsible for approving the anti-bullying and anti-violence plan, and any updated version of the plan, proposed by the principal (EA, s. 75.1).
- A document explaining the anti-bullying and anti-violence plan must be distributed to parents. The governing board shall see to it that the wording of the document is clear and accessible. The document must indicate that it is possible to make a report or file a complaint concerning an act of sexual violence to or with the regional student ombudsman and, for a person who is dissatisfied with the follow-up on a complaint filed with the institution, to use the complaint processing procedure provided for in the Act respecting the National Student Ombudsman (EA, s. 75.1).
- The anti-bullying and anti-violence plan must be reviewed each year and updated if necessary. The principal of the school sends a copy of the anti-bullying and anti-violence plan and any updated version to the National Student Ombudsman (EA, s. 75.1).
- Each year, the governing board shall evaluate the results achieved by the school with respect to preventing and dealing with bullying and violence (EA, s. 83.1).
- A document reporting on the evaluation must be distributed to the parents, the school staff and the regional student ombudsman (EA, s. 83.1).

CONFLICT, VIOLENCE OR BULLYING

Conflict	Violence	Bullying
Misunderstanding or disagreement between two or more individuals who do not share the same point of view, values or interests. There are no victims, even if the individuals may feel like they are losing. A conflict may be resolved either through negotiation or mediation.	Any intentional demonstration of verbal, written, physical, psychological or sexual force which causes distress and injures, hurts or oppresses a person by attacking their psychological or physical integrity or well-being, or their rights or property (EA, s. 13).	Any repeated direct or indirect behaviour, comment, act or gesture, whether deliberate or not, including in cyberspace, which occurs in a context where there is a power imbalance between the persons concerned and which causes distress and injures, hurts, oppresses, intimidates or ostracizes (EA, s. 13).

Sexual Violence

The Education Act does not provide a definition of sexual violence. However, reference to the following definition is suggested:

The concept of sexual violence refers to any form of violence committed through sexual practices or by targeting sexuality, including sexual assault. It also refers to any other misconduct, including that relating to sexual and gender diversity, in such forms as unwanted direct or indirect gestures, comments, behaviours or attitudes with sexual connotations, including by a technological means (Act to prevent and fight sexual violence in higher education institutions [CQLR, c. P-22.1]).

Racism and Discrimination

Racism:

A set of ideas, attitudes, and actions that aim to or result in the inferiorization of ethnocultural and national groups in social, economic, cultural, and political terms, thus preventing them from fully benefiting from the advantages granted to all citizens. (Concerted Action Plan 2020-2025)

Discrimination:

Every person has a right to full and equal recognition and exercise of his human rights and freedoms, without distinction, exclusion or preference based on race, colour, sex, gender identity or expression, pregnancy, sexual orientation, civil status, age except as provided by law, religion, political convictions, language, ethnic or national origin, social condition, a handicap or the use of any means to palliate a handicap. Discrimination exists where such a distinction, exclusion or preference has the effect of nullifying or impairing such right. Charter of Human Rights and Freedoms section 10.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Measures to protect the confidentiality of any report or complaint concerning an act of bullying or violence (EA, s. 75.1, para. 3, subpara. 6)

Measures implemented to protect confidentiality

- Increase staff awareness of the actions that must be taken to protect confidentiality, including the follow-up procedures.
- Identify a private location for a meeting with the people who are involved.
- Reports of bullying and/or violence are recorded on a digital database that has restricted access.
- Use intervention strategies that protect the anonymity of the person(s) who report or provide information.

Information concerning students involved in the situation must be treated with confidentiality. For example, information on the nature of the actions or measures taken by or toward the student who is the instigator may not be sent to the parents of the student who is the victim.

Sexual Violence

Confidentiality measures* to be put in place in the event of an act of sexual violence

- Following a disclosure, no public means of communicating (i.e. Radio-handsets or open speakers will be used).
- Ensure that only the key people involved with the incident are informed of the situation.
- Confidentially record only the necessary information and restrict access to ensure that only the key people involved with the incident can access this information.

 In accordance with the Youth Protection Act (CQLR, c. P-34.1, hereinafter YPA), a breach of professional secrecy is justified when a person contacts the DYP to make a report. It should be noted that the obligation of reporting to the DYP all situations of sexual abuse toward children and adolescents also applies to persons bound by professional secrecy, unless excluded (YPA, s.41)

Bullying or violence based on motives related, in particular, to skin colour and ethnic or national background

In accordance with the Youth Protection Act (CQLR, c. P-34.1, hereinafter “YPA”), any school staff member is required to immediately report to the DYP any situation covered by the YPA that involves minors, including situations of sexual abuse. Furthermore, any person, regardless of their role, is required to immediately report to the DYP any situation of sexual abuse or physical abuse (YPA, ss. 39-39.1). The confidentiality of the identity of the persons who report a situation to the DYP is guaranteed (YPA, s. 44).

In the case of a complaint concerning an act of sexual violence, the principal shall also inform the student who is the victim that it is possible to refer the complaint to the Commission des services juridiques. If the student is under 14 years of age, the principal also informs their parents of that option, and if the student is 14 years of age or over, the principal may also inform [their] parents of that option, with the student’s consent (EA, s. 96.12).

Filing a complaint with the police Youth Criminal Justice Act: The Youth Criminal Justice Act (S.C. 2002, c. 1) governs the justice system when an adolescent aged 12 to 18 breaks a federal law or is suspected of having committed a criminal offence. The criminal justice system for adolescents encourages rehabilitation and reintegration. The educational institution may be responsible for the enforcement of extrajudicial sanctions applicable to people who are instigators of violence in school contexts.

Sexual Violence

Possible disciplinary measures, in the event of sexual violence, determined according to an analysis of the situation as well as the nature, severity and frequency of the acts committed

Students under 12 years of age who exhibit worrisome or problematic sexual behaviours (see page 3 for the definition) towards others are not recognized as “perpetrators of sexual assault,” neither legally nor in the psychological, emotional or sexual sense of the term. Educational interventions will be the method for dealing with children engaging in these behaviours, and support measures may be necessary for children who have been subject to or witnessed these behaviours. |

 If legal proceedings have taken place and a student was found guilty of a criminal offence, the educational institution may be required to apply the judicial measures imposed on the student.

Bullying or violence based on motives related, in particular, to skin colour and ethnic or national background

Possible disciplinary measures, in the event of bullying or violence based on the aforementioned motives, determined according to an analysis of the situation as well as the nature, severity and frequency of the acts committed

When appropriate, and after ensuring that the student victim agrees, mediation and restorative action should be prioritized.

- Phone call or meeting to review the incident.
 - Temporary loss of privileges removal from preferred activities (e.g., classroom roles, special areas, clubs, certain recess zones), classroom or playground under supervision.
 - Restorative practice facilitated by administration or Special Education technicians when appropriate to rebuild safety and understanding.
 - In-school suspension
 - Structured monitoring and intervention strategies developed collaboratively with the student, family, administration, support staff, and, if needed, professionals (psychologist, social worker).
 - Out-of-school suspension
 - Referral to outside services (CLSC, school board professionals) when behaviour indicates deeper emotional or behavioural concerns.

FOLLOW-UP ON ANY REPORT OR COMPLAINT

Required follow-up on any report or complaint concerning an act of bullying or violence (EA, s. 75.1, para. 3, subpara. 9)
Measures taken to follow up on any report or complaint concerning an act of bullying or violence	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Record information on the incident.• Ensure that the situation has ended.• Follow up with parents about how the situation was addressed.• Inform the people involved about developments in the incident management, while maintaining confidentiality.• Ensure that the student instigator/perpetrator and their parents/guardians have lived up to any commitments they may have made.• Verify that the support and supervisory measures properly meet the needs of the people involved and make any necessary adjustments.• Inform parents/guardians of the mechanisms that exist for filing a complaint if the incident has not been dealt with to their satisfaction.
For each complaint received concerning bullying or violence, the principal shall, as soon as possible, send the director general of the school service a summary report on the nature of the incident and the follow-up measures taken (EA, s. 96.12).

Sexual Violence

Measures taken to follow up on any report or complaint concerning an act of bullying or violence

For each report received relating to an act of sexual violence, the principal shall, as soon as possible, send the director general of the school service a summary report on the nature of the incident and the follow-up measures taken (EA, s. 96.12). The summary report concerning an act of sexual violence shall also be sent to the regional student ombudsman (EA, s. 96.12).
Even if the initial evaluation concludes that the student does not have immediate needs following the situation, their needs should be subsequently reassessed at different points in time (e.g. with the help of observations from teachers, by speaking directly to the student).

Bullying or violence based on motives related, in particular, to skin colour and ethnic or national background

Measures taken to follow up on any report or complaint concerning an act of bullying or violence based on the aforementioned motives:
The terminology used in the follow-up provided to parents may be interpreted in different ways by some groups. Using neutral and factual terms (descriptions of behaviour) helps maintain an open dialogue. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In a timely manner, gather factual information, speak with involved students, and obtain any relevant observations from staff. The purpose is to understand the nature, impact, and context of the incident. • Protect all students while the situation is being reviewed. • Maintain neutral, respectful, and confidential communication with families and students involved and protect the privacy of all individuals while maintaining transparency about the school's actions. • A structured follow-up process is established to ensure that agreed-upon measures are implemented and effective. Staff will monitor student interactions, check in with the students involved, and make further adjustments if needed. All steps—from initial report to conclusion—are documented to ensure accountability and consistency.
